

CHICAGO CHRONICLES™

VOLUME 2

City Under Siege

It took years for Chicago's vampires to build their undead empire. Schemes were concocted, alliances were forged and the defeated were staked and left out for the sun. Chicago was firmly in the clutches of powerful Kindred... but no more. Werewolves, the mortal enemies of the undead, have sprung forth from the wilds to rid the city of its nocturnal corruption. The prince is dead. All hell has broken loose. How long before you face Final Death... or seize power?

Ravaged by Tooth and Claw

Chicago Chronicles Volume 2 is a compilation of two classic Vampire: The Masquerade sourcebooks: Chicago By Night Second Edition and Under A Blood Red Moon. Previously out of print and almost impossible to find, these books are now reprinted under a new cover. Volume 2 picks up where Volume 1 leaves off, continuing the tale of the War for Chicago, once fought among Kindred and now waged between Kindred and Garou.

Chicago Chronicles Volume 2 Features:

- Two classic Vampire sourcebooks: Chicago By Night Second Edition and Under A Blood Red Moon, two of the books that established the world of Vampire.
- The next chapter in the epic fall of Chicago. No vampire is safe, neither from invading werewolves nor from one another. The time for glory or destruction has come.
- Decide the fate of a complete city setting. Nothing lasts forever.

The Faceless City

By Andrew Greenberg

with Steve Crow

*Under the smoke, dust all over his mouth, laughing with white teeth
Under the terrible burden of destiny laughing as a young man laughs
Laughing even as an ignorant fighter laughs who has never lost a battle,
Bragging and laughing that under his wrist is the pulse, under his ribs the heart of the People
Laughing!*

— Carl Sandburg, "Chicago"

Chicago has known upheaval before. Death and destruction have long been second nature to its inhabitants. But never has it known a time like the recent Lupine attack. Never has the carnage lasted so long. Never have the undead felt such fear. Never has the Jihad been so deadly.

Now the violence has subsided. The undead rise from their holes and look over the wasteland. Unlives begin to stir, and plots revive. But the question is over. Eyes keep looking over shoulders, and shadows are twice as foreboding as they once were. No one knows if the war is over, or if it will begin again.

Special Thanks:

Mark “Does Dallas” Rein•Hagen, for his Texas weekends.

Stewart “Home Alone Too” Wieck, for his work on important projects.

Andrew “Arm in Arm” Greenberg, for his hallway walks with Benjamin.

Ken “Interruptus” Cliffe, for his amazing ability to get work down around the printer congregations in his office.

Josh “I’m a Bum” Timbrook, for his excuse for not taking out the piles of garbage.

Wes “Dataman” Harris, for his input, output and put-put.

Rob “Eviscerator” Hatch, for what he’s gonna do to the !?@#% who stole his hubcaps.

Rene “Seduction of Innocence” Lilly, for dragging the unsuspecting to the Dead whether they like it or not.

Travis “Jacques” Williams, for coming up with really scary Setite names. Ooh, I’m so frightened.

Richard “Flip Flip Flip” Thomas, for being such a Mille Borne-head.

Sam “Ground Hog” Chupp, for chopping it up on Feb. 2.
Chris “Spelling Bee” McDonough, for killing two (or nose) words with one book.

William “Bama Boy” Hale, for the fun he had in Stew’s state.

Bill “Howlin’ Potty Wolf” Bridges, for his favorite new toy.

Benjamin “Glory Questor” Monk, Jr., for knowing how to spend his weekends — and what computer games to play in the meantime.

Lyndi “Bathroom Floor” Hathaway, for knowing where to sleep when it happens.

Michelle “Whacker” Prahler, for taking it to the bozos in her department.

Word from the White Wolf Game Studio

Our first work of fiction, Drums around the Fire, is gearing up for release. This Werewolf book tells some of the many myths of the Lupines, and gives them the chance to explain their own (mistaken) view of the universe. Of course, we all realize that the vampires, not those loopy Garou, know the real truth. But more importantly, it is our first collection of short stories, and will hopefully become one of many.
